

SAFETY MESSAGE

Dear Campus Community,

The following information is being shared to enhance your personal safety at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. The goal is to provide information so the UNL community has awareness of the situation and can take precautions for their own safety, as well as to encourage reporting of similar situations to the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Police Department. Information reported in this message is based on the situation as currently known to UNLPD.

A member of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Police Department witnessed a suspicious person near a UNL residence hall on city campus in the early morning hours of Wednesday, October 1, 2025. Contact was made with the person inside the residence hall, and it was determined he was not affiliated with the university and had displayed behavior towards a UNL student that meets the criteria for stalking as defined by the Clery Act.

The individual is described as a medium-complected male in his mid-30's, bald with no facial hair and has been trespassed from UNL residence halls by UNLPD. At the time of contact on campus he was wearing a black shirt, dark pants, and glasses.

If you see him on UNL property or have additional information, contact UNLPD.

Personal Safety Tips

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln firmly believes a crime survivor is never responsible for the other person's actions or criminal conduct and it is the fault of the perpetrator alone. The UNLPD is providing the following safety tips in an effort to assist the University community with taking the necessary precautions

- Trust your instincts, and if you feel unsafe in any situation, get to a safe place and call for help.
- Do not allow anyone you do not know to follow you into your residence building or room as you enter.
- When entering or exiting an office or your residence, make sure the door closes tightly behind you.
- Do not loan out your access cards/keys and/or ID to anyone. If you lose any of these items, report it to UNLPD and/or applicable authority immediately so that the appropriate safety protocols can be taken.
- A list of campus safety resources can be found at <https://safety.unl.edu>.

Crime prevention and awareness, as well as consistent reporting, may be the strongest defenses against becoming a victim. Please call UNLPD immediately at 402-472-2222 (2-2222 on campus) to report information on this incident, or on any crime or suspicious activity or person. If you have any questions about this message, please contact the UNLPD at the phone number above or email unlpd@unl.edu.
