Personal Safety Tips

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln firmly believes a crime survivor is never responsible for the other person's actions or criminal conduct and it is the fault of the perpetrator alone. The UNLPD is providing the following safety tips in an effort to assist the University community with taking the necessary precautions

- Trust your instincts, and if you feel unsafe in any situation, get to a safe place and call for help.
- Intervene in a situation only if it can be done safely and call for help if you witness disrespectful or inappropriate behavior or a violent crime. It is a good idea to discuss how you might handle these types of circumstances in conversations with your friends before you are confronted with a particular situation. Use different scenarios and develop strategies to use in a specific event. Bystander intervention is an excellent way to stop an incident from occurring.
