

Timely Warning Bulletin

Being issued at 09:40 AM on 12/4/2018

University Police have determined that circumstances exist that may pose a threat to members and guests of the University campus community. Please read this notification and take any necessary precautions to avoid being a potential victim. Feel free to call University Police with any questions or concerns. This bulletin is based on the most current information available to the UNL Police Department, and may change as the investigation provides more details.

Case Number(s): 18005002

Offense(s): Sex Assault

Location(s): UNL Residence Hall

Date/Time of Occurrence(s): 12/1/2018 10:50 PM to 12/2/2018 1:35 AM

Description of Suspect(s): Suspect (1): black male, short hair, wearing white pants, white jacket, black shoes, and black stocking hat, approximately 5'8"-5'11"

Suspect (2): black male, short hair, wearing a black Northface jacket, white Adidas t-shirt with "Omaha Basketball", Adidas red pants, white shoes, black t-shirt, and black stocking hat that spells "Fancy" on the front, approximately 6'0"-6'3"

Incident Summary:

Two males accompanied a female student and a friend to her residence hall after they had met off campus earlier in the evening. The student reported being forcibly sexually assaulted in her room by the two males. Both males left the residence hall and the situation remains under investigation.

Safety Tips:

- Students are reminded to only allow trusted and known individuals into residence halls, and specifically into their rooms or apartments.
- The UNL community is encouraged to report suspicious behavior and any tips or related information to the University Police Department.

Warning Issued by: Chief Owen Yardley

If you witness anything suspicious or have any information on this or another case, please contact University Police immediately at 402-472-2222, or at 300 N. 17th Street, Lincoln, NE 68588.